DAVID TAYLOR

" The Escoda brush gives all one needs. The brushes hold their points and hold loads of fluid color producing great results. "

(Melbourne, Australia)

David's career in the study and teaching of watercolor painting spans over 4 decades. His great love of this medium has involved teaching in Australia and overseas. He has received numerous achievements in art including over 100 awards in watercolor. His works are represented in a variety of public and private collections worldwide. At each exhibition, Taylor conveys his love of spontaneity, light, shape and color and a sense of freedom when working on location.

His signature brushes are ideal for all watercolor painters. Each set includes a large synthetic mop brush - Ultimo series size 18 - perfect for laying down large washes, and two round synthetic sable brushes - Prado series sizes 8 and 12 - for all types of details.
